OUTSIDE PARTICIPATION

GUIDELINES

Introduction:

Welcome to the guidelines for participating in activities outside of our college campus. These rules are here to make sure that when you're representing our college elsewhere, you do so responsibly and respectfully.

General Behavior:

Respect College Property:

Don't damage anything on campus. Treat our college property with care.

No Misbehavior:

Behave yourself! No being rude, breaking stuff, or causing trouble.

Avoid Trouble:

Stay out of fights or anything that could cause chaos. We want to keep things peaceful and safe.

Representing the College:

Be a Good Ambassador:

When you're out there, remember you're representing our college. Show others the best of what we stand for.

Follow Our Rules:

Even when you're off-campus, our college rules still apply. Stick to them.

Understanding and Following the Rules:

Keep Us in the Loop:

If you're attending an event off-campus that's related to college or might affect us, tell us. We need to know what's going on.

Consequences for Bad Behavior:

If you mess up, we might have to let your home college know. That could lead to serious consequences like suspension or worse.

Communication with College:

Know the Rules:

If you're attending an event off-campus that's related to college or might affect us, tell us. We need to know what's going on.

Consequences for Breaking the Rules:

If you break these rules, there will be consequences. That could mean warnings, fines, or even being kicked out of college.

Review and Changes:

Updates and Reviews:

We'll check these rules regularly to see if they're still working. Changes might happen, and we'll let you know if they do.

Stay Informed:

Keep an eye out for any updates to these guidelines. It's your responsibility to know what's expected of you.

Conclusion:

Remember, when you're out there, you're not just representing yourself—you're representing our college. So, follow these guidelines, behave responsibly, and make us proud!
